

I am writing as a tax payer, voter, and citizen of this democracy to let you know that I strongly oppose the plans to relax or eliminate several major media ownership rules. Media consolidation is bad for democracy and ultimately, bad for America! The FCC should be doing everything to ensure that democracy comes before profit and monopolization.

-lucas